Under The Smile
of Summer
Sunshine

Time was when a high school pupil was advised, figuratively speaking, "to hitch his wagon to a star." Not now. Today he is being instilled with the thought of literally flying out into space among those stars. Perhaps within the pages of this book is pictured one who will conquer the mysteries of space and explore those faraway worlds. Only time will tell.

Remembering Mr. Robert Murphy, known to us here in C. H. S. as "Bob" and honored for his loyalty, love, and untiring service to us and our school through many years. We wish him happiness in his new home.

The Test

The test of a man is the fight that he makes
 The grit that he daily shows
 The way he stands on his feet and takes Fate's numerous bumps and blows.
 A coward can smile when there is naught to fear
 When nothing his progress bars,
 But it takes a man to stand up and cheer
 While some other fellow stars.

It's the knocks that you take and the jolts you get
 The shock that your courage stands
 The hour of sorrow and vain regret
 The prize that escaped your hands
 That test your mettle and prove your worth.
 It isn't the blows that you deal
 But the blows you take on this good old earth
 That show if your stuff is real.
